Why the Bible is Trustworthy, Unique and Enough – Class #7

Adult Equipping – Oct 24th, 2021

foal: The goal of this class is to demonstrate that the Scriptures are trustworthy, unique and enough so the followers of Christ will eagerly engage God's Word in humility and sincerity.
Psalm 119 Reading and Prayerful Reflection
• Ps. 119:105-112
Review questions from last week.
Enough: Clarity of Scripture/Living Word / Can I expect to understand the Bible?
1. Is God able to communicate to us through His Word?
2. Does God expect us to understand and obey His Word?

3. Does that mean that anyone can understand all that is written in Scripture?

4. What does it mean that the Word of God is Living?
Reflection:
Is the Word of God active in your life? Here are some practical steps to see God at work in you. Start by reading your Bible. Use a Read the Bible plan, or read the book being taught from the pulpit on Sunday (Proverbs right now), or pick a Gospel or one of the Epistles. Pray and ask God to reveal to you practical ways in which God's word can influence the way you live. Respond in faith as God enlightens you in ways to follow Him more fully.
